PROJECT EXPERIENCE

- Bole by Joanes (<https://bolebyjoanes.netlify.app>)
  - Using Flutter and NodeJs, I developed a web application though still in its testing stage for a food vendor company of which I am the Co-founder. This software is primarily meant for customers to use and place orders for any desired package, while providing a feature which enables them keep track of their orders and another feature that enables them obtain refunds for unsuccessful orders. The secondary use of this software is to enable people like me, keep track of sales, and analyze daily and monthly income whilst obtaining customer feedbacks on our various packages as well as feedbacks on delivery by dispatchers.
- Hotel Management software (Jogenics HMS)
  - Using Flutter, I was able to develop a desktop software that was sold to a hotel to enhance transparency in their operations which eventually aided in boosting their revenue.
- Siren Journals (<https://sirenjournals.net>)
  - Using React and NodeJs, I was able to collaborate with my colleague to develop a web application which serves as a platform for users who intend to publish school journals.
- Peculyn Superstores (<https://peculyn.com>)
  - Using NextJs, Php, I was able to collaborate with my colleague to develop a clothing shopping web application for a client.
